NOTICE TO PARTIES OF MANDATORY INJUNCTION ISSUED

---

NOTICE TO PARTIES:

Pursuant to T.C.A. Section 36-4-106, the following injunctions are issued against each party effective at the filing of this Complaint for Divorce:

1(A). Each party is restrained and enjoined from transferring, assigning, borrowing against, concealing or in any way dissipating or disposing of any marital property without the consent of the other party or any order of the Court.

(B). Expenditures from current income to maintain the marital standard of living and usual and ordinary costs of operating a business are not restricted by this injunction. Each party shall maintain records of all expenditures, copies of which shall be available to the other party upon request.

2. Each party is restrained and enjoined from voluntarily canceling, modifying, terminating, assigning, or allowing to lapse for non-payment of premiums, any insurance policy including, but not limited to life, health, disability, homeowners, renters and automobile, where such insurance policy provides coverage to either of the parties or the children, or that names either of the parties or the children as beneficiaries, without the consent of the other or an order of the Court. "Modifying" includes any change in beneficiary status.

3. Each party is restrained from harassing, threatening, assaulting or abusing the other and from making disparaging remarks about the other in the presence of any children of the parties or to either party's employer.

4. Each party is restrained from relocating the children of the parties from the State of Tennessee, or more than one hundred (100) miles from the marital home, without the permission of the other party or an order of the Court, unless in the case of a removal based upon a well-founded fear of physical abuse against either the fleeing parent or the child. In such cases, upon request of the non-relocating parent, the Court will conduct an expedited hearing, by phone conference if appropriate, to determine the reasonableness of the relocation and to make such other orders as appropriate.

5. The provisions of Section 36-6-101(a)(3) shall be applicable upon fulfillment of the requirements of subsection (d) of this act.
